

Lynn Johnson-Porter
Vice President of Philanthropy

Lynn Marie Johnson-Porter currently serves as Vice-President of Philanthropy for Presby's Inspired Life. In this capacity, she is responsible for soliciting private gift support from individuals, corporations and foundations in pursuit of the funding needs for the organization and its communities.

Prior to this position, Ms. Johnson-Porter worked as Executive Director of the West Chester University (WCU) Foundation. Ms. Johnson-Porter possesses more than 14 years experience in development, annual giving and corporate/foundation relations. Before joining West Chester University she was Director of Development for the University of Pennsylvania's Graduate School of Education. She has also been Director of Development for The Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition and served in several similar capacities at Penn State University.

From 1991 until 1994 she was Executive Director of the Philadelphia Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Ms. Johnson-Porter's professional experience also includes working in media relations at Cheyney University and with public relations agencies in the Philadelphia region.

She launched her career as a writer and producer at KYW - TV3 after earning a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Journalism from Temple University and an Associate of Arts Degree in Journalism from Penn State University. Additionally, Ms. Johnson-Porter has taken graduate classes at Villanova University and Temple University.

Ms. Johnson-Porter serves as a director for First National Bank of Chester County.